2011 DONALD G.H. BOWMAN
NATIONAL TAX MOOT

THE FIRST ANNUAL DONALD G.H. BOWMAN NATIONAL TAX MOOT

The Donald G.H. Bowman National Tax Moot is Canada's first competitive moot on taxation. The Moot is named after the Honourable Donald G.H. Bowman, former Chief Justice of the Tax Court of Canada. The first annual Bowman Moot will be held in Toronto on March 11th and 12th, 2011.

The Donald G.H. Bowman Moot was founded by Professor Emir Aly Crowne (né Mohammed) and Professor John P. Weir, both of the University of Windsor Law School, and the partnership of Fraser Milner Casgrain LLP (FMC). It is administered by a committee of jurists, practitioners, academics and students.

ABOUT DONALD G.H. BOWMAN

As former Chief Justice of the Tax Court of Canada, the Honourable Donald G.H. Bowman has extensive experience in resolving tax disputes. He is Counsel to FMC's National Tax Group and shares his expertise with members of the group as a mentor and adviser. Based in the firm's Toronto office, Mr. Bowman works to enhance FMC's ability to reach early resolution of tax and related disputes for our clients. His practice at FMC consists of giving advice on tax matters to clients, lawyers in the firm throughout Canada and to lawyers in other firms.

Mr. Bowman has spent his entire legal career as a tax litigator. He joined the Federal Department of Justice - Tax Litigation Section soon after his call to the Ontario Bar and was appointed director in 1968. He joined the law firm of Stikeman, Elliott, Roberts & Bowman in 1971 and was a partner there until his appointment to the Tax Court of Canada. He was appointed Judge of the Tax Court of Canada in 1991 and Associate Chief Judge in February 2000. He was appointed Associate Chief Justice in July 2003 and Chief Justice in February 2005.
